

Obituary: Rebecca Weisenburger

February 6, 1955 - July 16, 2024

Rebecca Weisenburger, age 69, passed away at her home in Silverton on Tuesday, July 16, 2024. Cremation arrangements are under the personal care of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Rebecca Louise Norris Weisenburger was born February 6, 1955 in Vallejo, California. At that time, her father, Robert Edwin Norris was a pastor and her mother, Ann Norris was a full-time mother and homemaker. They had two other children, Mark and Debie. Soon another brother, Dave, was born. When she was 4, the family moved to San Diego.

Then when she was 13, and the family was living in Salinas, California, her parents adopted two brothers, Martin and Don. In 1975, her first son, Seth was born. Soon she moved with her husband Kevin Perry, to Alaska, where her second son Colin was born. In 1991 she married Ted Weisenburger who brought his daughter, Becky Luttrell into the family. She lived in Petersburg, Alaska for 30+ years. After she retired from the Alaska Marine Highway System in 2019, she and Ted moved to Silverton Texas to live near her parents and travel. Becky was a woman who was loved and cherished by many. She had widely diverse interest and artistic talents. She served as Chef on the State of Alaska ferry line for 15 years. She served as a bartender and worked in a grocery store. She also worked at Lake San Antonio her senior year in high school. Becky's favorite thing
